O the summer time has come        and the trees are sweetly bloomin'

        |F    C                |Am                                |F                Dm        |F
And the wild mountain thyme        grows around the bloomin' heather

        |C  F        |C                                |F  F        |C
Will you go lassie go        and we'll all go together        to pull

        |F    C                |Am                                |F                Dm        |F
Wild mountain thyme        all around the bloomin' heather

        |C  F        |C
Will you go lassie go

        |C        F        C                                F    F        |C
I will build my love a bower        by yon cool crystal fountain

        |F    C        Am                                F                Dm        F
And round it I will pile        all the wildflowers o' the mountain

        C  F        C                                F  F        C
Will you go lassie go        and we'll all go together        to pull

        F    C                Am                                F                Dm        F
Wild mountain thyme        all around the bloomin' heather

        C  F        C
Will you go lassie go

        C        F                C                                F    F                C
I will range through the wilds        and the deep glen sae dreamy

        F    C                Am                                F    Dm        F
And return wi' their spoils        to the bower o' my dearie

        C  F        C                                F  F        C
Will you go lassie go        and we'll all go together        to pull

        F    C                Am                                F                Dm        F
Wild mountain thyme        all around the bloomin' heather

        C  F        C                                F  F        C
